formulating proposals for integrating the various Departments in the two States and it has submitted its report.

(b) The report is not intended for publication.

(c) Yes.

(d) Yes. The report is not intended for publication.

(e) Yes. This is also not intended for publication.

(f) The proposals for the integration of services have been tentatively laid down by Government and an officer, Sri. Ramunni Nayar, has been appointed to attend to that work.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai : May I know whether the final principles now formulated by Government vary from the first principles proposed by the re-organisation Committee.

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: No final principles have been laid down by Government. The few principles adopted by Government are tentative. The principles formulated in the G. O., dated 27th September 1950 are tentative.

Sri. A. Thanu Pillai: In the G.O. formulating those proposals, was it at all stated that those proposals were tentative or were they definitely laid down as final?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: They were never laid down as final, because it gives room for certain doubts that Government thought it necessary that an explanation was necessary.

Sri. A. Thanu Pillai: Was it stated that those proposals were tentative ?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: It was exactly the reason why the press note was necessitated.

Sri. A. Thanu Pillai: What was the time taken between the issue of the G.O. and the issue of the Press Note ?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: Only two or three days.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: Will the Government be pleased to publish a final proposal as a press note before finalising the proposals ?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: Yes; certainly.

Sri. A. Thanu Pillai: May I know whether the integration is being attended to by the Secretary who was got down for the purpose ?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: Yes; the principles that were tentatively laid down are sought to be conformed to by the officer who is in charge of that work.

Sri. A. Thanu Pillai: Do the Government realize that principles should be definitely and finally laid down before integration is effected ?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: It is a matter of opinion. If there are grievances, certainly those have to be looked into and if necessary the principles themselves may have to be revised.

Sri. A. Thanu Pillai: Have the principles been definitely laid down for the integration of the Secretariat ?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: Yes; the principles apply not only to the Secretariat but to all the departments in the State.

Sri. P. Balakrishnan Tampi: Do the Govrrnment apprehend that the publication of the reports of the Pay Commission and the Reorganization Committee would lead to any breach of law and order ?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: There was no report submitted by the Pay Commission. There was a report by the Reorganization Committee, and the Government do not think it should be published, not because of the fear of any breach of the peace.

Sri. A. Thanu Pillai: Has it not been definitely laid down in the proceedings that in all matters relating to persons, their special claims should be looked into?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: That is exactly why the press note has been issued subsequently.

COMPULSORY RETIREMENT OF OFFICERS

16. [16] Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: Will the Hon'ble the Chief Minister be pleased to state.—

(a) the number of officers ordered to be retired in accordance with the principles enunciated in the Press Note dated 20th February 1950;

(b) the names of the officers and the length of service of each on the date of order to retire; and

(c) whether the principles laid down in the Press Note was applicable to the service as a whole or only to a section of it?

Chief Minister (Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai):

(a) 13.

(b) It is not in the public interest to disclose those particulars.

(c) The principles were applicable to all gazetted officers.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: May I know whether one Mr. Aiyappan Pillai, Secretary to Government, was made to retire?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: I have already answered that. It is not in the public interest to disclose those particulars.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: Therefore it is that I am disclosing the particulars and need an answer.

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: That is exactly why I refuse to answer that question.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: Had that officer put in 25 years of service on the date when he was asked to retire?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: I am not in a position to say that.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: Has he completed 55 years of age?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: Even those people who have not put in 25 years of service have been asked to retire on the ground that they have completed 55 years of age.

Sri. P. S. Nataraja Pillai: Therefore only, I ask whether the officer mentioned by me comes under the category of 13 names?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: I have already answered that. I think it would not be in the public interest to publish those figures.

Sri. A. Thanu Pillai: Is it a fact that he had neither completed 25 years of service nor 55 years of age? Is the revelation of this fact against the public interest?

Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: I have already answered that question.

Sri. P. Balakrishnan Tampi: Is it not very clear in regard to the officer referred to by Mr. P. S. Nataraja Pillai that he has not completed 25 years of service nor has he completed 55 years of age? What is there now against public interest, now that the name has been mentioned?

(No answer).
